NEWSPAPER PROSPERITY.

We have just received the following sworn returns of cash receipts for advertising of the leading newspapers of Pittsburgh, for the two months ending March 1st, 1867, on which day the law repealing the tax went into effect:

GAZETTE.	$12,486 14
Chronicle.	12,125 00
Dispatch.	12,051 79
Post.	7,865 15
Commercial.	4,579 64
Freiheit's Freund (German) .	2,519 81
Volksblatt (German) . . .	1,700 00
Sunday Leader (Weekly) .	1,290 75
Total.	$54,618 28

By the above it will be perceived that the GAZETTE shows evidence of continued prosperity, ranking first on the list. The figures, however, speak for themselves. Adopting the language of a contemporary, used in illustrating its prosperity, a few months since, but which is now fifth in the above returns, we say that "we don't like to bid good-bye to our friends, but must move on at all hazards, let who may stay behind."

THE Constitutional Convention of New York is still in session. Yesterday the weak and watery "Universal Peace Society" presented a memorial praying for amendments to the Constitution removing the causes and abolishing the provision for war. This important petition was referred to a Committee, which action may now be regarded as an effectual killing of the subject. The policy of a probibitory law was discussed and a resolution on the subject disposed of by laying it upon the table. The protection of the sale of spirituous drink in New York could not be accomplished any more than could the ocean be dammed.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT of no little importance is made to-day by telegraph from Boston. Petroleum oil has been found an admirable substitute for coal in steam navigation. This will open a new demand for the production of mother earth, and when universally adopted will, in a measure, prevent the accumulation of petroleum and consequent depression of the market. It will require about one hundred barrels to fuel a steamer for a trip across the Atlantic, which, at a reasonable market price, will prove much cheaper than the coal now used.

THE MONEY MARKET was quiet and easy yesterday in New York at five and six per cent. Here it is not a difficult matter to obtain discounts on good paper at rates varying from seven to nine per cent. Trade has brightened up considerably during the past few days, owing to the fact that our iron mills are in successful operation, and are receiving daily heavy drafts from the Western cities, which are in a great measure thrown into the hands of workingmen for disbursement among retail dealers.

BURGLARS have no compassion or pity. They entered and robbed of nearly all its possessions the dwelling house of H. B. Claflin, of New York, on Thursday night. This merchant prince of the metropolis only returned an income of twenty-five dollars last year, and could not well afford to be made the victim of thieves without conscience. We pity him.

A ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR THIEF was heard from yesterday by those having charge of the Conscience Fund at the Treasury Department, Washington. He hails from St. Louis. Is it presumable that no Pittsburgher defrauded the Government during the war, since no contribution has been made to the fund from this neighborhood.

THE letter of Gen. Diaz to Minister Romero presents the cause of the Liberals in Mexico in a rosy light. If he did not over-estimate the strength of the Army of Operation, Mexico and Vera Cruz have doubtless ere this fallen into the hands of the victorious army, and the leading Imperialists made prisoners.

THE selection of a jury to try the assassin Surratt is attended with much difficulty. So far only three have been selected.

IT is announced that the Schleswig question has been satisfactorily settled by the cabinets of Copenhagen and Berlin.

—James Van Beurklin has made three attempts during the past week to commit suicide in Chicago. Twice he jumped in the river, and was rescued; and in the third case he shot himself, and now lies in a critical condition. He was formerly a Methodist preacher. Ill luck in business is the cause of his rash actions.

—Four boys from Chicago, all under fifteen years of age, were arrested at Detroit, on a charge of having committed a robbery of sixteen hundred dollars in gold, from the clothes of a Californian, while in bathing in Desplaines river, near Chicago, last Monday. When found, Mr. Manley and the bear lay dead side by side.

—An old Scotch lady had an evening party, where a young man was present who was about to leave for an appointment in China. —The total amount of whiskey receivedin bond in Cincinnati between January 1st to June 1st was 5,344,405 gallons; amount shipped to other districts, 2,870,724 gallons; on hand June 1st, 2,873,681 gallons, the government tax on which is $57,676,240. Before the summer is over they will have explored the summit of Mount St. Elias, navigated the Knitchepk for at least a thousand miles, and scratched the whole surface of the territory in search of gold. Secretary Seward will have put up his part of the work, and the Government had better at once enforce definite rules in regard to the proprietorship of the soil, so that future complications may be prevented.

—A western editor says he will labor to put down the cause of intemperance. As the cause of intemperance is generally supposed to be liquor, he will no doubt put it down with little trouble.

DUBLIN, June 14.—The trial of the Fenian Walsh and a number of his companions, which has been in progress before the special commission, in session at Limerick, has resulted in a conviction of the accused.

THE MASSACHUSETTS FENIANS—THE MORNING OF AN "INFORMER"—ATTEMPT TO RESCUE PRISONERS.

The supposed Fenians, who landed and were captured a short time ago at Dungarvan, were sent to Cork, Limerick and confined in jail there. This week they have been undergoing a preliminary examination. The testimony given so far shows that four of them had served as officers in the United States army during the late rebellion. It has already been reported that Corydon, who was one of the chief witnesses against them, had been roughly handled by a mob yesterday, while the prisoners were being conducted from the court-house to the jail, in charge of a strong police force, a crowd of their sympathizing friends gathered from all parts of the city and made a fierce attack on the guard, with the intention of effecting rescue. A fight ensued, during which some thirty of the police escort were injured. One of the attacking party was killed, and six are known to have been wounded by the fire of the guard. The latter made a stout defence, and succeeded in safely depositing their prisoners in the city prison, when the mob dispersed.

CONDENSED NEWS.

—The New York Herald's Rio Janeiro (South America) correspondence of May 7th, says the cholera was raging in the Brazilian camp on the River Platte, that nearly seven hundred men died in four days, and that two thousand troops had been dispatched to prevent the people from destroying the hospitals at Carrientas. This intelligence, however, is doubted, and believed to be a stock-jobbing canard. It was further reported that in Buenos Ayres the streets were filled with funerals, and the people dying on the piers, about door steps, and everywhere. Large crowds were rushing away, and every little hamlet in the interior was crowded with refugees.

—From San Luis Potosi, Mexico, June 2d, it is reported that on the following day Maximilian, Mejia and Castillo might possibly be sentenced to be shot. Maximilian offered to abdicate and use his influence to cause the immediate surrender of the City of Mexico and Vera Cruz. In return he asked the lives and safe conduct out of the country for himself, his German officers and troops, and Generals Mejia and Castillo. The proposals were rejected. The Emperor Maximilian and Mejia were placed in separate cells. Notice had been served upon the President of the court-martial, that Maximilian denied the jurisdiction of the court, on the grounds of international law. The government, he says, recognized by every power in the world except the United States, and can only be tried by a legal congress of the nations. What the result will be no one ventures to predict.

WASHINGTON, PA.

Arrival of General Grant—Interesting Wedding—Sabbath School Anniversary—Meeting of the Ministerial Association, &c., &c.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, PA., June 13, 1867.

A somewhat notable event occurred here yesterday. About noon flags were thrown to the breeze all over town. Shortly after, an extra train arrived at the depot, bringing General Grant and family. They came to be present at the marriage of a daughter of Wm. McKennan, Esq., to a Mr. Smith, of this place, which ceremony was performed this forenoon, and the happy couple, accompanied by the General and his family, took the train this morning on their way to the railroad. Many of our citizens availed themselves of the opportunity of shaking the hand of the General, and tendering the usual assurances that they honor the man who led the grand army of the Republic to a complete and triumphant close of the unfriendly rebellion.

In the evening of this week the Sabbath School of the First Presbyterian church, Dr. Brownson's, held its fifty-first anniversary. The well-filled church nicely decorated, and the children gay and happy. A large audience was present and highly delighted. The addresses by Dr. Brownson, Rev. Mr. Hamilton, Rev. Mr. Watkins, of the Methodist Episcopal church, it was a success. The children were trained by Mrs. Brownson, and the grown people gave unqualified approbation. The singing was done by the school, and to the satisfaction and delight of all present.

The Ministerial Association of the Washington district convened in the Methodist Episcopal church on Monday morning, and closed its sessions this, Thursday, afternoon. The exercises were of an interesting character, consisting of sermons, essays, discussions, criticisms, &c. One of the questions discussed was this: "Ought the ministry to agitate the question of slavery in the pulpit and in the church?" The affirmative prevailed. Another question was: "Ought our institutions of learning to close their doors to students on account of color?" This received an emphatic negative.

The Methodist Episcopal church, E. M. a church sociable was held to which the members of the Association were all invited. It was an occasion of much enjoyment. The lecture room of the church was tastefully and profusely decorated with flowers, ice-cream and cakes there was an abundant supply. And what with this and kind greetings and pleasant smiles, and votes of thanks and impromtu speeches, and songs of praise, and a closing prayer, the hundreds present retired at an early hour, saying to themselves: "That was a well devised, prudently conducted, delightful, and profitable church sociable."

KITTANNING.

Organization of the Rural Valley and Reynoldsville Railroad Company.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

KITTANNING, June 13, 1867.

In a recent number of your excellent paper, notice was taken of the importance to the business interests of Pittsburgh, of opening railroad communication with the great lumber regions at the sources of the Allegheny river.

The importance of such communication has long been felt by that interest as well as other interests, of not much less magnitude, in that section of the State. And it affords me pleasure to state that active measures are now being taken to secure a railroad through the Rural Valley and Reynoldsville, and to tap the great pine forests of that section of the State.

The Kittanning Rural Valley and Reynoldsville Railroad Company is the only project which can aid in the development of all those interests. It affords me pleasure to say that, to-day, it was organized under most favorable auspices. William Phillips, Esq., President of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, was unanimously elected President of the Board of Commissioners, F. Meckling, late member of the Legislature, as Secretary, and Alexander Reynolds, long and favorably known in the business community of Pittsburgh, Treasurer.

The corporators are men of intelligence, determination and energy, and there seems to be little if any doubt that the enterprise will prove a decided success. It is confidently believed that more than half the stock of the first section of road to build from coal can be secured along the line, and we understand that assurances are given that other corporations will materially aid in the work.

Besides the incalculable advantage to the lumber interests, there will be a great saving from this road, in the way of direct trade, it would be without doubt the best route to Philadelphia and New York, not only for progress, but also for heavy freight trains, as we are informed no portion of that route will require a grade of more than twenty-six feet to the mile, while nineteen-twentieths of it can be made at a grade of less than ten feet to the mile.

Pittsburgh should be aware of its interests and look to this matter; and in looking will soon find that the best market is the metropolis of the Pennsylvania Central Road. A word to the wise, &c.

Yours, truly, CORNPLANTER.

ANNAPOLIS, June 14.—To-day was the thirtieth of the Constitutional Convention. First Prize—Second Prize—Third Prize.

The first grand gold prize medal for the best Pianos at the Exposition in Paris, in competition with three hundred Pianos from all parts of the world, has just been awarded by the jury on musical instruments to Messrs. Steinway & Sons, New York; the second one to a Boston house, and the third one to Chickering and Sons, London. This is a veritable and splendid triumph for our country, and we have every cause to be proud of having won the laurels from European heads, and on a field, too, where their boasted superiority has ever been superciliously asserted.

Remember that the Free Excursion Trains for the great sale of Lots at Sharpsburg, on Monday, the 17th inst., leave both Allegheny and Pittsburgh Railroad depots at six o'clock on that day. Free for all.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK, A. M.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 14, 1867.

THE SURRATT CASE—NO JURY YET.

In the Surratt case to-day, Judge Wylie on the bench, Judge Fisher being sick, the names of the talesmen ordered yesterday were called. Thirty-eight offered no excuses. Quite a number were excused and several held for action by Judge Fisher.

No new jurymen were selected and the Court adjourned till to-morrow.

According to law and the opinion of Judge Fisher, when a jury has been impannelled in a cause commenced, the trial continues until finished, notwithstanding intervention of the new term.

Only three jurors have been sworn in the case, and the prospect is not promising that a jury will be procured to-morrow. If not, the proceedings thus far, it is thought by lawyers, will amount to nothing, particularly as the June term of the Criminal Court will begin on Monday, and the case will have to be commenced anew.

PUBLIC LANDS.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has ordered the withdrawal, on behalf of the Cairo and Fulton Railroad Company, under the receiving act of Congress, of July 26th, 1866, of all odd sections, with enlarged limits, on five miles on each side of the road, commencing at a point on the State line north of Gainesville, and diagonally traversing the State of Arkansas on Little Rock and Fort Smith road.

The Commissioner has submitted for signature seventy-four patents in favor of the Delaware Indians, under the treaty concluded under the Fottowatomie treaty of the 15th of November, 1861. The aggregate tract covered is 74,000 acres, or about 1,000 acres in the State of Kansas, Topeka land district.

MUTILATED MAIL BAGS—THE INDIANS.

The Post Office Department to-day received the following:

OFFICE WELLS, FARGO & CO., Stage Departmental North Platte, Nebraska, June 8, 1867.

Hon. George W. McLelland, Second Assistant Postmaster, Washington:

DEAR SIR:—I this day, by request of Wells, Fargo & Co., forward you one box of mutilated letters and mail bags. You will observe a portion of the former are saturated with the blood of one of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s passenger, who were murdered by the Indians while with the coach from Denver to this point. Passengers and mails are accumulating here to a large extent. To-morrow we start in company with three companies of cavalry and a battery, and accompanied by a guard of our employees, which we expect will be compelled to fight their way through.

I am, sir, very respectfully yours,
HENRY MONROW, Agent.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

A letter from J. H. Cooper, agent of the Yankton Indians, dated June 5th, says: "There is a great deal of trouble here with the Indians. The Sioux have declared war, and everywhere are threatening. One man was shot and thirty-seven horses taken by the hostile Indians. The white men at my agency are on guard. We have no soldiers."

BEING FITTED OUT.

The ram "Stonewall," recently purchased for the Emperor of Japan, is now being fitted out, workmen being engaged on her, and it is expected she will leave about the middle of August.

NETHERLANDS MINISTER.

Mr. A. Massel was to-day presented to the President as Minister Resident of the Netherlands, during the absence of Mr. Belmburg.

ADDITION TO THE CONSCIENCE FUND.

Ten dollars in silver in the Treasury Department was increased to-day by one hundred dollars from St. Louis.

FROM JAPAN.

The Visit of the Foreign Ministers to the Tycoon—Highly Interesting and Successful Entertainment—"Japanese Economy"—Interesting Facts, &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—A specialist to the Herald from San Francisco says: The Colorado, from Yokohoma, brings fifty first class passengers and a full cargo of freight. Intelligence from Japan is of a highly interesting and important nature. The visit of the Foreign Ministers to Osaca was successfully accomplished. The entertainment on the 20th of May and the functionaries had returned to Yokohoma. The treatment of the foreigners by the Tycoon at Osaca was princely. Houses had been prepared for them, fitted with the choicest English furniture. French cooks and European servants were provided. Wines and liquors were without stint. In fact, nothing that was wanting during their stay was furnished in abundance and free of expense. Each representative and suite was granted a private audience and dined with the Tycoon, several days before the official visits took place. On these occasions the Tycoon presided at the head of a table, his dinner wholly European in the outfittings. The dinner was thoroughly French in detail. At the visits of ceremony, Van Henry, aid on the Tycoon is a man of ordinary stature, apparently thirty years of age, with good features. He was very richly dressed and his manner easy and refined. He thoroughly understands the European custom of drinking toasts, and drank the health of the President of the United States with gusto.

At the official visit, which was of short duration, everything was Japanese. After the usual ceremonies, the Tycoon and the Foreign ministers expressed to Minister Van Valkenburg his great gratification at the establishment of the new steamship line between San Francisco and Yokohoma.

"Japanese Tommy" acted as interpreter for the American Legation throughout the visits. Kanagawa, the residence of the Minister at Hiago, eleven miles across the Bay, and laid out the foreign settlement, where a town of great size, and a mile in width, and extending three or four miles back from the water, has been appropriated, under the treaty, for residences of other parts of Japan. The anchorage is good. The settlement in Osaca is about the centre of the city. All were highly pleased with the town.

In about a month the Ministers will visit the capital, Yeddo, and the treaties will be ratified. The place selected will probably be Psurango, in the province of the Kanga.

Among the passengers by the Colorado are the boats of the American ships Shenandoah and Wyoming, by which the officers of the latter ship lost three thousand dollars.

The Prince of Owari, who is second officer of the Empire, visited Yokohoma recently. He has been until lately prejudiced strongly against foreigners. He was received with all the honors and in many places all animosity was removed.

The whaling bark Canton, Captain Frazier, went ashore on the 30th of April, at Yaluga Takai, on the North-west coast of Niphon. It broke up in five minutes and became a total loss. The cargo had previously been shipped home. James Fairbanks, of Baltimore, and four Lanackers were also lost on the 30th of May.

The United States ships Hartford and Wyoming have gone down to the Inland Sea, to visit Hiogo and Osaca. The latter vessel's destination is at Yokohama, where the Monocacy and Supply ships are expected.

There is nothing of importance from Shanghai or Hong Kong.

A cable has been ordered in England for the submarine telegraph between Hong Kong and Shanghai.

Among the passengers on the Colorado are Don Juan Nepomuceno Pierre Lorenzana, Count Beaulaire and Captain Fauvel, who intend to spend some time in California. Also, Captain Laidlow, of the Seventieth Regiment, who intends enjoying shooting on the plains, and Sasaki Yourok, a highly sharpened native of Japan, who intends visiting the mines and mining in California, and proceed thence to the East, where he will buy fifteen thousand of the most improved machinery.

There are no changes in the prices of silk.

Sterling Exchange is firm.

The crops are very favorable regarding the crops in the country. In the most of the districts silk worms were reported in about the usual state of temperature, which is regarded favorable. The best Mybash and Lunret were quoted at $2,400 per picul. The best grade of tea is very much reduced. The finest runs $250@ per picul. The Japanese say it will be increased by the production this year. The lowest prices are hoped for.

FROM MEXICO.

Letter from General Diaz to Minister Romero—Hopeful State of Affairs for the Liberals.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The following is a letter from Gen. Diaz:

VACUBAVA, May 28.—Senor Don Matias Romero, Mexican Minister, Washington:—MY MUCH ESTEEMED FRIEND:—Since my last letter to you the division of Gen. Rivy Ralaza, and that of Gen. Carbajal, which was attached to the Army of the East during the siege of Queretaro, have been incorporated into the Army of Operation against the City of Mexico; also the Army of the West, under General Corona, and two battalions of the Army of the North, under that of General Francisco La Taro. We number in all thirty-five thousand men, and I am in a few days sure I shall be ours. I could have taken it with the forces of the Eastern army alone, but I had not sufficient cavalry to cover all the outlets through which the principal quality parties would have escaped. But now, with the thousand cavalry of the West, we are well guarded. The same thing will happen as at Queretaro. None will escape. I have with me every kind of confidence in the result. Within the City of Mexico the press still endeavors to deceive the people by denying the fall of Queretaro and imprisonment of Maximilian; but both the people and the army have heard of it. I consider the occupation of the capital a matter of a very few hours, and I do not believe Vera Cruz will attempt to hold out afterward. In

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

That the resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Convention, which was held at Harrisburg on Tuesday last, accurately reflect the principles and sentiments of the voters therein represented, will be freely admitted by all who have read them and have a just comprehension of what the Democratic party has been for some years past, and still is. So far the resolutions are deserving of commendation, which we bestow. The deficiencies of the resolutions are those of the party. In them there is no appreciation of the national situation as it really exists, no generous glow at the extension of liberty, but much grumbling thereat; no broad statement of genuine Democratic doctrine, but much pandering to ignorant passions and prejudices, that are rooted in caste and presumption; no exultation that the rebellion was abashed and defeated, but disreputable cavils at the means by which that end was accomplished; and no enthusiasm over that fresh career of enlarged freedom and prosperity upon which the nation has entered; but a dismal looking back to the old times when Slavery reared its proud front, dominated in the national councils, and was worshipped by a recreant democracy as the sublimation of all political good. Let us specify.

1. All those principles are reiterated for which the rebel leaders contended before they fairly struck out into open revolt. The Democratic party, by many years of the most industrious propaganism, became so fully imbued with those ideas as to suppose they were not only inherent in the Constitution, but absolutely indispensable to the existence of a government duly acknowledging and maintaining the rights of the people.

2. All those principles which would completely deliver the rebel States and their inhabitants from punishments or disabilities incurred by criminal participation in the gigantic assault upon the life of the nation. It is one thing to inculcate magnanimity towards a prostrate foe. It is quite another to insist that public enemies, no matter how great their offences, have done nothing to diminish their rights, or to justify the adoption of precautionary measures against a repetition of their proceedings. This eagerness, by means of special pleadings and legal technicalities, to hurry the insurrectionary commonwealths back to their primitive rank and power in the Union, and with none of their mischievous dogmas disavowed, affords perfect demonstration, if no other existed, of the ultimate and censurable relationship subsisting between the northern democrats and the southern rebels. As the democrats originally encouraged their southern partizans to go into secession, promising them not only moral support but physical help, so now they appear at the bar of public opinion proclaiming that the conspirators have done nothing which renders them amenable to discipline, but stand with all their rights unimpaired, and justly challenging a recognition of them.

3. The resolutions declare boldly against the right of suffrage, acquired by the blacks as a natural corollary from their emancipation; and this is tantamount to requiring that the boon shall be taken from them. Instead of recognizing, in an enlarged spirit of patriotism, facts accomplished and destined to remain, they seek to reanimate a dead dispute, and perplex and distract the country with it for years to come. The men who led the rebel armies; who periled their lives on hundreds of hotly contested battle-fields to make the rebellion a success; whose genius imparted to it a glory and renown that will make it forever memorable in the traditions of the nation and in the annals of the human race; evince a much better temper and disclose a more truly loyal purpose. Having expended all the resources of their valor and art to make the rebellion triumphant, and been thoroughly beaten, they bow to fate, accept the judgment of the sword that they invoked, give no countenance to factions and deceitful efforts to renew the past controversy, and seek to bind the nation together on the new basis.

—Some Democrats in Pennsylvania have had a reputation for political sagacity, but they seem to have lost it. If, however, they are willing to hang millstones about their necks and cast themselves into the midst of the sea, on party grounds, at least, we are without cause of complaint, though on the higher ground of the national welfare, we might wish they were less under the dominion of baffled pride, of distempered passions, and mischievous ideas.

On State questions the resolutions are silent. Not a word is said of a Constitutional Convention; of Freedom in Railroad Building; or of any other matter in which as Pennsylvanians, our people have special interest. Here is before us an election with not a federal office to fill, and which ought to turn permanently on issues relative to State policy, and the Platform is as silent as the grave on all matters pertaining exclusively to the State.

We look forward confidently for the Republican Convention, soon to assemble at Williamsport, to present a better model—one which, sound on all national topics, shall meet the home questions in a proper way, and compel the democrats to throw off the mask they now wear, and avow on what principles they would administer the affairs of Pennsylvania if the people should again unwisely restore them to confidence and authority.

"A MAN IS WHAT HE KNOWS."—So said Lord Bacon. A man is what money he has, in words or thought, says many a man far inferior to Lord Bacon. Neither of these sayings may be exactly the truth, though the former is more nearly correct. A man's knowledge cannot be separated from him, but is a part of himself, and will be throughout this and another life. It can no more be annihilated than the mind itself. It may be forgotten for a time, but it will be recovered. Once secured, it is a sure and eternal possession. But a man's money is not part of himself. It is external and cannot be incorporated into his being. It is perishable, and may be acquired by inheritance, or the merest accident. Knowledge can be gained only by the efforts of the individual himself, and its possession is a sure indication that a man has control of his powers, that he can bravely meet and overcome difficulties, and can steadily apply himself to one object until he has accomplished it. When man leaves this earth he parts with his money forever. But his knowledge, his tastes, his habits of feeling and acting will accompany him beyond the boundary of this life. Which then is the wiser man, he who devotes all his time and energies to the acquisition of money, or he who devotes a part of them to the acquisition of knowledge?

LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

LAWRENCE, June 10, 1867.

Messrs. Editors Gazette:—I have been from St. Paul to this place and I must say I never saw the crops looking finer, particularly the wheat crop. The grasshopper scare has all passed away; in fact I have not seen a single one of them from Kansas City to Topeka. The corn is looking better here than in Illinois or Iowa.

The question of Female Suffrage is all the topic here. It is thought by many intelligent persons, with whom I have conversed, to be certain to carry in this State. If so, good bye to whiskey, and, consequently, the Democratic party, which lives only upon that beverage.

It is claimed here that whisky can only be put down by placing the ballot in the hands of women, as they would be to a man opposed to voting it down the throats of their husbands, sons or brothers. H.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, lately held at Xenia, Ohio, has awakened much interest among the various evangelical denominations, because of the long discussion in the M'Cune case. Notwithstanding the length of time occupied in discussing its merits, and the number of speeches delivered, the best of feeling existed among the members of the body. The final action in regard to Mr. M'Cune is not believed to be severe, while at the same time the Church and its Standards have been fully vindicated. Considerable business was acted upon in the closing sessions, which deserve a passing notice. Assembly authorized the use of so many of the new version Psalms as were reported to last Assembly—having received a majority of two-thirds of the aggregate vote of Presbyteries. It was ordered that hereafter the term of study in the Theological Seminaries shall be three years, and the length of the session seven months. No student is to be taken under trial for licensure until he has completed the entire course. Every student must place himself under the care of some Presbytery. The discussion on the report of the Board of Foreign Missions indicates a determination to reinforce the mission work in China, India and Egypt. The amount of money asked for the coming year is $101,000. Rather a sharp debate sprung up on the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the subject of Secret Societies, in which several speakers opposed such organizations, as being unscriptural. The discussion was cut short by the adoption of a motion to refer the whole subject to a special committee of five, to report at the next meeting of the Assembly. The Narrative and State of Religion shows the body to be in a vigorous condition. During the year, there have been licensures, 33; ordinations, 18; resignations tendered and accepted, 31; pastoral settlements, 31; congregations organized, 15; Presbyteries organized, 2; Students dents of Theology, 4. All the figures are of the same hopeful character. It has been ascertained that great prosperity has attended the labors of the ministry in connection with the official members. The next Assembly meets at Argyle, N. Y., on the last Wednesday in May, 1868.

The Provincial Synod of the Moravian Church, at its late meeting in Bethlehem, elected three members of the Provincial Elder's Conference, a very responsible position in the Church. Two of the ministers elected accepted the appointments. The third declined and informed the Synod he would leave the question of his acceptance of the position to the decision of the Lord in the lot. After prayer, the lot was drawn and the answer was "No." The Synod accepted the decision, and proceeded to a new election. The minister elected also submitted his case to the decision of the "Lord in the lot," and the answer given was "yes." Among the important reports adopted by this body was one on Ritual and Worship, which recommends two collections of Liturgies for communion—one in the English and one in the German language, the use of the surplice on sacramental occasions, and the custom was enjoined on the congregations to give the right hand of fellowship at the commencement and close of the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

The Sixty-first Annual Meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church is now in session at Geneva, N. Y. After the usual preliminary arrangements, Rev. Thomas C. Strong, D.D. was elected President. Considerable time thus far, has been occupied in considering the reports of the different Boards of the Church, and receiving delegates from other bodies. Among the principal topics before the body is the change of name, by dropping the "Dutch" from it. Many of the older ministers and members desire to retain the name, but it is probable the change will be made, or, at least, provision for doing so hereafter. The chairman of the Committee on the Name of the Church has reported a paper of twenty-eight closely printed pages. It is likely the name will be "the Reformed Church of North America." Rev. Dr. PORTER, the very able and vigorous editor of the Christian Intelligencer, a paper of sterling worth, favors the change. This denomination is more strictly confined to certain portions of our country, especially in the Eastern States. At some points the churches are vigorous and the membership command great wealth. Their benevolent operations, such as Missions and Education, are sources of great power and of commanding interest in the religious world. The Board of Foreign Missions estimate that full sixty thousand dollars will be nesessary to carry forward their Mission work in foreign lands.

The Episcopalian is urging the clergy not to consent to the closing of the churches in the warm weather, as has been the case in many instances heretofore, especially in large cities, while many of the congregation are at fashionable watering places. By this means the reproaches of the Roman Catholics, that Episcopal Churches close their doors at certain seasons, as regularly as the opera and the theatre close theirs, could not be made hereafter. The Catholics claim their temples of worship are open without intermission from the 1st of January to the 31st of December.

The twelfth annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and the British Provinces, meets at Montreal, the 19th of June. It is expected to be an interesting time. Essays are to be read upon the following topics: 1. The relation between the Associations and the Church of Christ. 2. Literary classes, their Management and Relation to the Associations. 3. Association Bible classes, and how to conduct them. We believe delegates go from this city.

A Christian Convention, organized by the American Christion Commission, held a meeting at Leavensworth, Kansas. Reports were made of religious desolation in large cities. Whether these statistics are correct or not, they give some idea of the destitution abroad in the land, from which we learn the startling fact, that in thirteen of the principal cities of the United States, with a population of 2,048,785, there were, in 1858, church accommodations for but 852,426; leaving 1,200,000, unprovided for. Chicago has 150,000 people who seldom hear the Gospel. New York city, with a population of 1,000,000 has church sittings, of all kinds for but 300,000, leaving 700,000 unprovided for.

A correspondent of the Independent, writing from Ireland expresses the belief that the Irish Established Church cannot exist much longer, as a National Institution. He says Gladstone's speech is regarded by all parties as the death-knell of that Institution. Speaking of the May meetings, he represents the Wesleyan Missionary Anniversary as having the most crowded audience and interest. Strange to say the veterans of Wesleyanism were unrepresented in the speakers. Punshon made the collection speech, who is studied, elaborate and critically exact in his style. He says the patriarchial Thomas Jackson, the apothegmatic and epigamatic John Scott, the philosophical James Dixon, and the stentatorian, dogmatic and sageful John Hannah, took no part in the proceedings.

At the late General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church, the power of that body, as being pre-eminent to any other in the Church, has been fully established, so that hereafter the "State Rights" advocates, as they are familiarly called, that Presbyteries are higher than the General Assembly, will not likely agitate the question again, as they have done, especially within a few years past. We learn from the Banner of this city that the report of the Committee on the Declaration and Testimony was adopted by an almost unanimous vote. It says most probably this ends the whole matter, so far as the Assembly is concerned.

The Catholic contains an editorial commending Sunday Schools, when properly conducted, as being among the greatest helps to religion and the Church. Schools are gradually increasing throughout this Diocese, and it is urged that wherever there is a Catholic church, there should also be found a Sunday School. It very truthfully says no one can overrate the importance of them, for in truth they are the hand-maid of religion, the nursery in which the youth of every congregation are trained in the knowledge of those duties which in more maturer age they will be called on to fulfill.

Rev. James Lynch, who has edited the Christian Recorder, of Philadelphia, the organ of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, with signal ability for several years, has resigned, and accepted the appointment of Presiding Elder of a District in Mississippi, we believe, proffered by Bishop Simpson, so that he will labor hereafter in connection with the M. E. Church.

Lord Shaftesbury at the laying of the corner stone of a Mission Chapel, in London, of the Wesleyans, said with much feeling: "When alarmed as he could not help but be, at the prevalence of religious errors among the higher classes, he turned with sensible relief to the poor, who were grasping religious truth, in the love of its purity. They will have the very best religion or they will have none at all."

The Christian Intelligencer says the Roman Catholic Fair, which has been in progress in New York City, during the last fortnight, is about to close with a net profit of one hundred thousand dollars. This is unprecedented success in this country.

—Recent deaths: At Nashville, June 5th, Anne Senter, the actress, wife of Harry Langdon.—At Mansfield, Ohio, Henry Nail, aged 74, an old pioneer of Richland county and a soldier of the war of 1812.—At Liverpool, England, May 28th, William Francis Brough, aged 70, the veteran singer and manager. He was an Irishman by birth, but had resided for over 20 years in this country. He had gone to Great Britain to introduce the Webb sisters. His fatal disease was rheumatism.—In England, Sir Robert Smirke, aged 87, a celebrated architect. He was the builder of the late Covent Garden Theatre, the central part of the Custom House, the General Postoffice, Millbank Penitentiary and the British Museum.—At Albany, June 7th, J. M. Trimble, owner and manager of the Albany Academy of Music, aged 54. He was famous as a theatrical architect, having built 34 such places of amusement.—In Beaufort county, N. C., June 4th, Gen. W. A. Blount. He took an active part in the war of 1812, and has since filled many public trusts.

—Contributions towards the rebuilding of William and Mary College, at Williamsburg, Virginia—which was burnt during the war—have recently been made by A. T. Stewart, W. W. Corcoran, the Earl of Derby, and the Archbishop of Canterbury. Gen. Grant and Henry Ward Beecher indorse the efforts now being made to procure aid.

—It is rumored that Rev. John P. Gulliver will go to New York to organize the anti-Independent newspaper project, and that the scheme for establishing a Congregational organ in Chicago will be held in abeyance until the new metropolitan paper has fairly established itself.

A NATIONAL MEDICINE.

One can hardly pick up a newspaper or turn a street corner now-a-days that he does not find, staring him in the face, an immense notice of Prof. So-and-so has just discovered a medicine which is a panacea for all the ills that flesh is, or may be heir to. These "wonderful" discoveries usually have an existence of a few months, then disappear from public notice. The reason of their sudden extinguishment is apparent. They were humbugs. At the outset all medicinal preparations have an equal chance for success, as all are equally unknown; but the chaff is soon winnowed from the grain by the practical test which an unprejudiced public applies to all things. Here are but few preparations of medicine which have withstood the impartial judgment of he people for any length of time. One of the few which we have now in mind, and which has been a long time familiar to nearly every household in the land, is the celebrated HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Their almost universal sale and use, and their emphatic endorsement from all portions of the country, compel the admission that they must be a specific for the ailments for which they are recommended. Letters besides attest their efficacy in diseases of the throat, bowels and liver—in that truly terrible complaint, dyspepsia, they are regarded as a sure cure. In Pittsburgh, where these Bitters are manufactured, their sale for home use is immense. This fact alone speaks volumes in their favor.—Extracts from the Monitoline (Iowa,) Courier, Feb. 7, 1867.

PINUS CANADENSIS.

A tree which is abundant in Canada, Nova Scotia, and the more northern parts of the New England States, and is also found in the elevated and mountainous regions of the Middle States, and abounds in medicinal virtues. DR. WISTAR, of Boston, has prepared a medicine from the sweet inside bark of the pine tree, called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which is one of rare value in all debilitated states of the kidneys. It acts like a charm for all diseases of mucous membranes, enabling them to regain their ori tone and energy. It will be found well adapted to all those diseases where Buchu has been tried and failed. It is likewise well suited to chronic cases, as an infallible remedy for old and debilitated cases of asthma. Many persons who at first only took a bottle of this medicine, to try, afterwards came back and got a dozen, or half dozen, which effected radical cures of diseases of the bladder and kidney of years standing.

Diabetes, a disease that has been looked upon as among the incurables, is immediately relieved by it. Notice the certificate of Asa Goodnue, ph. lished among our ads.

The United States Dispensatory, speaking of the pine, says: "It is prescribed in leucorrhœa, gleet, and other discharges of the mucous tissues; in piles and chronic inflammation or ulceration of the bowels, in chronic catarrh affections, and in various forms of rheumatism." It is exceedingly valuable in all gravelly affections, bloody urine, and where there is red and white sediment. It can be taken without interruption to one's usual avocations; and immediately produces a bracing, healthy power of endurance and vigor. Price, $1 per bottle; six for $5. Ask for POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND. For sale by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at DR. KEYSER'S Great Medicine store, 140 Wood street. ap20

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

This Court met at ten o'clock Friday, Hon. Thomas Mellon on the bench, Col. I. B. Duff, District Attorney.

VERDICT RENDERED.

In the case of David Ihess and Jacob Crum, indicted for assault and battery, on oath of Patrick Keenan, the jury found a verdict "not guilty," the defendants and the prosecutor each to pay one half the costs.

A BASTARDY CASE.

Elizabeth Marshall, eighteen years of age, unmarried, of Indiana Township, appeared as prosecutrix against her cousin, Samuel P. Marshall, residing in Allegheny, in an indictment for bastardy, alleging that he is the father of her child. Before its birth the defendant, after being prosecuted, appeared at the magistrate's office and made overtures to settle the matter. Marriage was out of the question, the defendant having a wife, and an agreement was arranged, but not completed, that he should pay to the prosecutrix then the sum of four hundred dollars in instalments. Defendant failed to appear on the day appointed for signing the agreement, and consequently the case came to Court. The jury found a verdict of guilty. The defendant was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and a fine to the Guardians of the Poor of five dollars; to pay, for "lying in" expenses, to the prosecutrix, twenty-five dollars; to pay to the prosecutrix, for the maintenance of the bastard child, the further sum of one dollar and twenty-five cents per week, from the date of its birth, September 6th, 1866, until it is seven years of age; and to enter into recognizance, bound with sufficient security, in the sum of $500, to the Guardians of the Poor of the county, conditioned for the performance of this order, or such other order as the Court shall direct for the maintenance of said bastard child.

LAWRENCEVILLE BURGLARY CASE.

Frank J. Guth was placed on trial on an indictment charging him with burglariously entering the house of Adam Srlieb, on Wall street, Lawrenceville, in the latter part of April last, and taking therefrom a variety of articles. The prosecution established the fact that a burglary had been committed, the door of Mr. Srlieb's dwelling having been broken open. A clock, window blind, a quantity of flour, a coal scuttle and steamer, pair of shoes, shirts, some dishes, two umbrellas, a woolen shawl, screw driver, knife, chisel, two pocket knives, three boxes of tea and coffee pots, a tea kettle, &c., were taken. A number of these articles were produced and identified, and it was proven that they were recovered in the house of the defendant, about "two acres" from the prosecutor's residence. The articles were found in different parts of the house—the window blind and shirts in a box occupied by defendant's father-in-law, a blind man, under his head and part between the sheets under the bed. Three more free searches made, by Constable Irwin. On the first search only a bucket was found; the other articles were subsequently discovered. Defendant was present at the second search, when all the articles identified were found. Officer Irwin said there was another man in the house, and he had a warrant for the arrest of this other person, charged with the burglary, on oath of Guth, defendant in this case. On the morning of the burglary tracks of bare feet were traced from Streib's house to and from that occupied by defendant. The case for the Commonwealth closed with the fact of the burglary established, and also that the stolen goods were found in the possession of the defendant, or at least in the house occupied by him. The defense set up was that the burglary was committed by another party, who lived in the house with Guth, and who disappeared about the time of the robbery. This man's name was given as Otto Foerstiger. Quite a number of witnesses called testified to the defendant's good character for honesty; he had been in the army, and was awarded a medal by the State of West Virginia for good conduct.

It was argued on behalf of the defense that the Commonwealth, by showing the possession of the stolen goods in the defendant, had not made out a prima facie case of guilt. The possession had not been shown to be exclusive, and the circumstances indicated that suspicion should properly rest upon the man Foerstiger, who lodged in the house of Guth. Jury out at adjournment.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, June 14, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 137¼; Eighty-one bonds, 102¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 104; Five Twenties, 1864, 106¾; Five Twenties, 1865, 107; 1865 Consols, 108¾; Seven Thirties, 106¼@106⅞; Ten Forties, 100¾; Michigan Southern Railroad, 68¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 76¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 97¼; Erie, 60¾; Chicago and Northwestern, 35¾; Chicago and Northwestern preferred, 69½; New York Central, 102¾; Reading, 103¾; Western Union Telegraph, —; Gregory, 3,85; Corydon, 1,87; Quartz Hill, 1,86; Smith & Parmelee, 4,10.

Quotations in Government securities were barely sustained; the bulk of surplus funds is now used for call loans, and time engagements with railroad and miscellaneous securities as collaterals, being more profitable than governments at high premiums. The share market reacted a very natural consequence of the sharp advance within the last two days; prices may yield a little more to-morrow morning, but the disbursements of the Treasury to-morrow will bring out new buyers who speculate on a quick turn before the banks begin to draw in, preparatory to their quarterly statement, when a pinch and sharp decline is looked for.

Mining shares have all improved, except Gregory, which is dear, even at what it sells at now. Quartz Hill and Corydon are the only speculative stock on the list, and have been a source of great profit to those who were well informed.

The gold market is firmer again, but nevertheless betrays signs of an early decline, when rumors of heavy shipments and lower prices for cotton in England can not effect an advance of ¼ per cent., and with heavy payments by the Treasury at the end of the month, then we may safely predict a gradual decline. If it was not for the larger foreign houses who holds large amounts yet which has to be disposed of before they come in as bears, the market would now be much lower. Our exports are only five millions in excess of our shipments from California.

—Crop reports from all parts of the country, especially from the South, continue good. In the Southern States the harvest has already commenced. A letter from Charleston says the receipts at that port will be heavy, several millions of bushels being expected, beside large quantities of flour. The Southern wheat will come forward as early as possible to take advantage of the hungry market. No wheat raised in the country is more acceptable for the early trade. It grinds better than other new wheat, and will carry on long voyages without heating.

The effects which good crops would have on the financial condition of the country are thought by some to be a little over estimated. We may be better able to supply the wants of those who have suffered from the ravages of war, but there must be a demand for our cereals from abroad before we can profitably export. business in Europe throughout the manufacturing districts of France and Germany is at a stand-still, and the purchasing power of capital and labor very much reduced. Those depending on the proceeds of their daily labor will only be able to purchase the coarser and cheaper food, which can be raised at home, and only in case of war, which can not occur in less than eight months, will our flour and grain find a market which would enable us to sell our surplus raised at a high cost. These are considerations which should be well weighed before speculating on an immediate improvement of our financial condition.

—The New York Times gives the following statement relative to recent Government sales of gold-bearing bonds:

It is no secret that engagements were entered into for June delivery of the bonds before the order came by telegraph, on the 4th inst., to stop further sales. These engagements were made pursuant to standing orders from Washington. They were made with no "ring"—with no particular brokers dealing in the public funds, but they supplied, to all intents, after the closing of the May accounts of the Department, when it was not convenient or desirable to sell to the delivery of that month. And all applicants were so informed, with the promise that they would be served to the extent of their wants on the incoming of June On Saturday, the 1st, and Monday, the 3d, and on Tuesday, the 4th inst., up to the hour of the receipt of the Secretary's telegram to the purport that he found his currency balances much larger than anticipated, and he desired to make no further sales of bonds, these engagements were recognized, as it was necessary, in good faith, they should be, and the names of the brokers and the amounts which they had bought, respectively,—and not as a "ring" or combination, or by preconcert—forwarded to the Department. The issues of the 5-20 bonds for June delivery were not only unknown to each other, but some of them were rivals in business, and who would have been the first to proclaim an act of favoritism had the Assistant Treasurer entertained, much less perpetrated by such a purpose.

—According to a Washington dispatch, among the assets to be sold over by Mr. T. P. May to make good the defalcation in the Sub-Treasury at New Orleans, is the New Orleans and Carrollton Railroad, seven miles in length, which is now operated by horse or mule power. Mr. May had a lease of it for thirty years, at $20,000 per year, with an increase of $500 each year. Certain friends of General Beauregard now desire to purchase it, and offer $250,000, which the Government declines, and will offer it at public auction soon to the highest bidder. The new Assistant Treasurer has not yet perfected his bonds, and Mr. Knox, the Treasury Agent, is still in charge.

—The official report of the receiver of the First National Bank of New Orleans shows the total assets to be $2,250,000. Of this $400,000 are classified as doubtful, and upward of $600,000 as bad. The liabilities to individual depositors amount to $998,000; the circulation is estimated at $180,000, and the amount due the United States $215,000. The liabilities mentioned by the directors as makers and endorsers of bills aggregate $647,000.

—Among the questions of interest before the Attorney General is one arising under the Internal Revenue act, laying a tax of 10 per cent. on the notes of parties or institutions of all sorts circulating as money, which in this case involves a question whether certificates proposed to be issued by the State of Alabama are bills of credit, and as such prohibited by the constitution of the United States.

—The Internal Revenue Commissioner is getting ready to break up the illicit traffic which has now on hand 97,[illegible] and about 200,000 gallons under bond, properly accounted for. The [illegible] portion of the trade, the [illegible] practiced in it may be very [illegible] up.

BIG ARRIVAL OF COFFEE.

Messrs. Spencer & Co., the well-known grocers, received yesterday from the [illegible] by a Western Railroad, 535 bags of Coffee; also, 35 barrels and 10 hhds sugar. These goods left by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Wharf-boat, and from thence by the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad. From this, it is fair to [illegible], that the Baltimore & Ohio is receiving freight through from Baltimore and other points east to Pittsburgh below the rates of the Pennsylvania Central.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, June 14, 1866.

The operations in produce generally continue very light, and with a demand confined almost wholly to supplying immediate wants, round lot transactions are of rare occurrence. The weather being very favorable for the growing crops, and with an almost certainty of an abundant harvest, strengthens the conviction that both Flour and Grain must go still lower, and that the bottom has not yet been touched, is almost certain. In other commodities there are no new features, either as regards demand or prices, worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—There is no movement in either Wheat or Barley. Oats quiet and unchanged; small sales at 65@66c on track, and 70c in store—sale of 75 sacks at 65c. Rye is dull but unchanged—sale of 45 sacks at $1,25. Corn is exceedingly dull, and it is said that there is a very large supply in elevator; may be quoted nominally at 80 to 85c for prime Shelled.

FLOUR—There is no improvement in the demand, and prices remain nominally unchanged. We continue to quote at $12@12,50 for Spring Wheat; $13,50@14 for Winter Wheat, and $17 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is a dull but unchanged—small sales in store at $9.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet but steady, with regular jobbing sales at 9¾c for Shoulders; 11¾@12¼c for Ribbed and Clear Sides, and 15½@16c for Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, 13c; Dried Beef, 23@24c, and Mess Pork, $22,5 @25.

POTATOES—A little dull and tending downward. Sales in store at $1,25@1,35 per bushel for Peach Blows—mostly at $1,25.

EGGS—Continue to meet with a good demand, and fresh are held readily to-day at 23c—some few sales at 24c.

CHEESE—Is dull and unchanged. We continue to quote at 14c for Western Reserve, and 15@16c for Factory and Hamburg.

BUTTER—Continues dull and unchanged—12 to 14 for fresh packed and 16@18 for prime fresh Roll.

DRIED FRUIT—There is but little inquiry and the market is dull and unchanged. We continue to quote at 6@7 for Apples and 10@12 for Peaches.

HAY—Is dull and under the influence of increased receipts, prices are tending downward. Common and inferior Hay is hard to sell at any price.

SALT—Is dull and unchanged—quoted at $2,20 of track and $2,40 delivered.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, June 14, 1867.

CRUDE—The market was again active today, the reported sales reaching nearly 18,000 barrels, but the operations were mainly for 1868, and can be termed nothing more nor less than a business species of gambling. The reported sales were: 700 bbls (40 to 43 gravity) on spot; at 7c; 2000 bbls for 1868, buyer's option, at 12¾c; 10,000 for same delivery and option, at same price, and 5000 same delivery, option and price. These operations, as we have already stated, are nothing nor less than a species of gambling, and the idea of making large sales, involving thousands of dollars, eighteen months ahead, may be all right, but, somehow or other, it seems like going too far into the misty future. We have no advices from Oil City to-day, but the probability is that the price remains unchanged at $2,20@2,25.

REFINED—There was rather more done in bonded oil to-day, but the market, nevertheless, continues weak, and prices have still further declined. Sale of 2000 bbls (standard white) 500 each for July, August, September and October, at 24, delivered in Philadelphia; 500 for August (standard white) at 22¾; 500 (standard white) for September, at 24; and 3000 (standard white) 1000 each for October, November and December, at 26¼.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day: 700 bbls for D. M. Edgerton; 300 for Fisher & Bro; and 55 for Wm. McCutcheon—total, 1124 bbls.

OIL SHIPPED EAST FROM DUQUESNE DEPOT.

PITTSBURGH METAL AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, June 14, 1867.

The market for both Metal and Blooms has been very dull and neglected during the week which has just closed, the operations, in the aggregate, being lighter than during any preceding week since the mills resumed operations. Of course, it is always expected that this branch of business will fall off at this season of the year, but it was thought that in consequence of the lock-out, and the fact that stocks of manufactured iron and nails were very much reduced, that the busy season would extend further into, possibly, throughout the entire summer. These expectations, however, are not likely to be realized, and it looks now as though the mills would take their usual summer rest; and this being the case, there is but comparatively little demand for Metal, and as the market is weak, holders do not seem disposed to let a sale slip through their fingers.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, the Monongahela pier marks showing scant three and a half feet. It is alleged by some that there is more water in the channel than these marks call for, while others allege that there is not over three feet on Glass House. One thing is certain, however, the metal marks showing three and a half feet are still covered by at least six inches, and these marks used to be relied on by steamboatmen. The weather continues oppressively hot in the sun.

All the boats that left on Thursday, got over Glass House with but little difficulty. The Bayard rubbed; the Believermon stuck about thirty minutes, and the Columbia passed over with little or no difficulty. The Robt. Moore left for Portsmouth last evening.

The Glasgow and Glendale, from St. Louis, are among the first boats due. The Belle was expected in last evening, and will depart as usual to-day at noon for Cincinnati. The Lorena arrived at Cincinnati on Wednesday, and left shortly afterwards for Pittsburgh.

The Belle, Capt. Laughrey, with Mr. J. W. Chambers, in the office, is the regular Saturday packet for Cincinnati, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. Messrs. Barnes and Collins are her agents.
